

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Malkus, you have a half
2 minute more to answer the question.

3 DELEGATE MALKUS: Mr. President, I think maybe
4 I can last that long, but all I want is the people to know
5 who their judge is going to be. Somebody said something
6 about Caesar's wife, but if you are going to be a judge, let's 7 be clean. Let the people know what you are before you are 8 appointed.

9 This is the only hope we have got, Mr. President.
10 This is the only hope we have got, because this is a closed 11 shop. Let the press come in and let's listen to what the 12 candidate has to say and what is being said against him.
13 I don't know whether I answered my deskmate's question or 14 not, but I want to say this: I want the people to know 15 who the judge is going to be before he is appointed.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is not clear as to 17 whether you have answered the inquiry. Is that your answer, 18 Delegate Malkus? You were asked whether you would agree to 19 an amendment, and I am not clear whether you are rejecting 20 it or acquiescing.

21 DELEGATE MALKUS: Mr. President, when I am not
